

Christmas Stocking

Christmas stocking - another English tradition. On Christmas Eve children hang it on the fireplace to Santa Claus filled it with gifts. There is a legend about stocking.

Once a family is preparing to celebrate Christmas. But they were so poor that they could not afford to buy a Christmas tree under which Santa Claus would put their gifts. And sadly the children went to bed, not relying on the gifts, and the next morning still found in their stockings hung by the fire to dry. The children were very happy, and the custom of hanging socks over the fireplace remains tod

