

Christmas Cracker

When served on a table, be sure to put on a plate Christmas cracker.

Both adults and children are pulling crackers, of which cotton fly small trinkets - cuff links, mirrors, pocket knife - as well as paper crowns that are worn on the head. In cracker are also leaflets with riddles and jokes. Strolling through the streets of any English town or village, you will surely see the whole family at the table with a crown on his head.

