

Christmas food

Imagine yourself in the early evening, the Christmas table somewhere in Kent. Look at meals.

We see Brussels sprouts and chestnuts, fried potatoes, sausages wrapped in bacon steamed parsnips and turnips, bread and cranberry sauce, and roasted turkey stands in the center of the table . For dessert we served flame-pudding and Minsie units

