

Space elevator - the concept of engineering facilities for rocket-free run in the cargo space. This design is based on the hypothetical application of the rope, stretched from the surface of the planet to the orbital station located in geostationary orbit.

