

- One Canadian company received a patent for the construction of lifting device, which is able to deliver people and cargo to a height of 20 km. Pat received by the company, is a description of the structure of the elevator - in particular, its height is 20 kilometers away. The patent describes the construction of the lift height of which is 20 kilometers in diameter - 230 m, and which is supported in the air by means of sealed compartments, filled with a gas which is lighter than air.

