

School cons:

- When I went to the 10th grade, I thought that would be a lot of work and homework, but most of all I did not like the stuff that is written in some books is a real nightmare, so boring and not interesting that immediately discourages study the

