

EXPERIENCE

The first important lesson gained from failure is experience.

What happens when we fail? When we go through something and can walk away with firsthand experience, it helps us to develop a deeper understanding for life

The More You Fail, The More You Win

