Too many companies fail to renew themselves, and slowly die. Follow these seven principles to ensure the future of your venture:

Establish a culture that motivates and innovators

