

Management MUST Consider:

Capital Expenditures

Each year the company must pay for property and equipment, which includes fixed assets tied to store expansion, before making payments to shareholders. Capital expenditures, or “CAP-EX,” come before cash shareholder returns in priority.