The screenshot shows the EY internal social media interface. At the top is the EY logo and tagline "Quality In Everything We Do". Below this is a navigation bar with links: Home, Profiles, Communities (highlighted), Blogs, Bookmarks, Activities, Files, and Wikis. Under the navigation bar are tabs for "Public Communities" and "My Communities". The main heading is "EMEIA Area People Team". To the left of the main content is a sidebar with a profile picture of colorful balloons and a menu with links: Overview (highlighted), Members, Discussion Forum, Bookmarks, Blog, and Feeds. The main content area has an "Overview" section with tags "hr, people, team". Below this is a "Discussion Forum" section with three discussion topics: "Did you...", "What d...", and "HR Onl...", each with a "Last post" link. A large grey rectangular area obscures the content of these discussions. Below the forum is a "Bookmarks" section with a link "Ten Ways to Get People to Change" and buttons for "Print", "Email", and "Close".

For EY Knowledge: Big Four CKOs discuss the future of knowledge

In mid-September, the Big Four Chief Knowledge Officers (CKOs) met in New York office. For two days, they discussed the future of knowledge management in internal social media. In his latest video, the CKO discussed the opportunity to learn from the past and the future of knowledge management.
