

FUNNY FACT

After the USA set off to the operation desert Shield in the Persian Gulf, an unusual thing began in the US: yellow ribbons tied around trees and various other objects in public places. the yellow signified that servicemen off on a mission were not forgotten and their homecoming was waiting for them.

