

9. When you play take bottles of water with you, the 9th is very often is the furthest point on the course. They rarely have halfway houses, there are no cart girls and few if any provisions for hydration of any sort along the way.