

If you do get sick (vomiting and diarrhea), and it's showing signs of being a serious infection, antibiotics are the treatment of choice.

