

It is a cartoon with elements of drama. The king has a son. The king's brother wants to take the power, so he kills the king. Everybody thinks that the killer is the king's son. He runs away crying for his father's death. After some time he gets new friends, meets the girl of his dreams and comes back to save the kingdom from his cruel uncle.

THE LION KING