

New Containers for New Ideas

- «Neologism: Neologisms are «words that have appeared in a language in connection with new phenomena, new concepts,... but which have not yet entered into the active vocabularies of a significant portion of the native speakers of the language». (Woodhouse dictionary, 1972, p. 225)

- «A neologism is the term used to describe a word that has been made-up or invented by a speaker, which appears in a transcript of spontaneous speech dialogue...»
