

- In 1870, he married, and a new and happy life began for him.

He had one son and three daughters, whom he loved very much and was the happiest man when they were with him.

- They settled in Buffalo, New York.