

Goals of conference

*III Almaty Interbanking
Conference*

- Discussion on perspectives of development of world banking system, determination of contemporary tasks, and its effective decision.
- Exchange of experience and informing with financial projects, achievements, plans and problems from colleagues.
- Strengthening of collaboration between CIS banks and cooperation among other banks. Establishing of friendly partner relations, new contacts and close business relations.
- Drafting recommendations for state regulation bodies on creation of favorable conditions for development of banking system.

